MISS MARY HELEN WILSON

Miss Mary Helen Wilson retires this year after having taught English at Pontiac High for 31 years. Miss Wilson is fond of traveling. While on a six weeks trip to Europe in 1930, she especially enjoyed the scenic Alp Mountains but says her trip was highlighted by seeing the Passion Play at Oberammergau. Having already visited the eastern and northwestern states, Miss Wilson now plans to visit the southwestern states, making Tucson, Arizona, her first stop. However, she plans to return this summer to her farm home near Marlette, Michigan. Miss Wilson received her Bachelor of Arts Degree at Albion College.

MRS. HAZEL MILLER

For the past 12 years Mrs. Hazel Miller, who retires this June, has been teaching Modern History at Pontiac High. Mrs. Miller was born in Clare, Michigan, and attended Central Michigan Normal College at Mt. Pleasant where she earned her Bachelor of Science Degree. She received her Master of Education Degree at Wayne Univrsity. In her spare time Mrs. Miller enjoys gardening. She is especially interested in roses. Upon retiring this year, she plans to live in Pontiac and keep house for Mr. Miller. She is looking forward to doing the things around the house that she has had little time for while teaching.

MISS ZELLA WALKER

Miss Zella Walker, who retired in June, 1950, attended the University of Michigan where she received her Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts degrees. Although she's a real Michigander, she has traveled all over the United States. Miss Walker likes to cook and read, and the theater is another one of her interests.

MISS CLARA MEYER

Since retiring in June, 1950, Miss Clara Meyer has enjoyed occasional trips to different parts of New York state and Michigan. At present she is busy getting her affairs in order so she can travel more extensively. Miss Meyer was born in Detroit, but her home has been in Mt. Clemens for many years. She received hr Bachlor of Arts Degree at the University of Michigan and also attnded Michigan State Normal College and did graduate work at Wayne University. She came to Pontiac in 1920.

MR. WESLEY SIBLEY

Since retiring in June, 1950, Mr. Wesley Sibley has finished revising his textbook formerly known as Socio-Economic Problems of Importance and Interest to Workers. The textbook, now called the Social and Economic Problems of Demcracy's Workers, is being used in schools all over Michigan. Born in Wixom, Michigan, Mr. Sibley was graduated from Detroit Central High School. Attending the University of Michigan, he received his Bachelor of Science in Engineering in 1909. He worked in the Pontiac School System for 20 years. This summer he plans to visit his daughter in California.

Looking Back

There was excitement throughout the semester for the January Seniors. Their first important task was to elect responsible officers. Russel Grover became big chief and promptly chose chairmen to head various groups. The honor of heading the prom was given to Albert Simpkins and Barbara Billingsley. They called the prom "Starlit Garden."

Then came the day when all the faces of the seniors gleamed with joy—caps and gowns had arrived. The baccalaureate service was held on January 21 at the Central Methodist Church. The seniors journeyed to Rotunda Inn for Class Day, which included the reading of the class will and prophecy.

To complete the year, commencement was held in the boys' gymnasium on January 25.

Mr. Thors congratulates Russell Grover, president of the January Graduating class.

Looking Back

Smoke signals rose over the brick tepee fast and furiously as the June Seniors made history. After a successful campaign, Esmo 'Tee' Woods was named president of the class. Warriors Dick LaLone, Maxine Hurt, and Art Weiss were elected vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, respectively. Faithful tribesmen were given special recognition at the National Honor Society assembly which was held March 21. Forty-three members were awarded pins for character, scholarship, service, and leadership.

Drums beat loudly as the seniors departed for their annual canoe trip June first, second, and third. Since other injuns (the January Seniors of '50 and '51, and the summer school grads of '51) went along too, the June graduates had to exchange their canoe for a larger boat. Their destination—Mackinac Island. The final war dance was held during the latter part of May. Injun artists worked laboriously to make the boys' gym spectacular for the "final fling."

Esmo "Tee" Woods smiles his thanks as Mr. Thors congratulates him on being elected class president.

Busy to The Beat of The Tom-Tom

The Pontiac High School Vocal Department now includes twenty-five percent of the student body. These musicians are divided into eighteen groups. All vocalists were a part of the three major programs: the annual Fall Vocal Clinic with Peter Tkach guest conductor, the annual Community Christmas Concert, and the annual Spring Concert. The annual vocal department get-together was held in February and was called Fortissimo Frolic. The small ensembles and Choir presented over sixty public service programs throughout the community.

ADVISOR: Vera Mae Adams.

Mr. Thors says good-bye to Miss Vera Mae Adams and Betty Wortman before they leave for the Freedoms' Foundation, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, to accept the award for outstanding work in the teaching of the American way of life. The award was based on a series of radio scripts done by the Workshop.

Betty and Miss Adams stand by the cannon in front of Valley Forge Memorial Chapel, one of the places visited on the Freedoms' Foundation Pilgrimage. They chat with people from Hamilton, Ohio.

Ann Brooks, Russell Bane, and Bob Brown do manual sound effects in studio, for show called "Fireman Casey and Fireboat 999."

RADIO WORKSHOP

The aims of the Radio Workshop are to get a background in radio through practical experience in all phases of it; to learn to work together; to develop and create attitudes through the doing of scripts designed to foster good thinking; to provide service to the school and community; and to help each individual realize his worth both to himself and the group. The highlight of this year's activities came when Miss Adams and Betty Wortman went to Freedom Foundation, Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, to accept the award for outstanding work in te teaching of the American way of life through a series of radio scripts.

The primary children of Daniel Whitfield School sing for the story time broadcast "Horton Hatches the Egg." Miss Rosamond Haeberle directs.

Betty Wortman does the Story Princess on "It's Story Time" assisted by Chuck Renwick, Ron Woodhull, Dave Sly, and Freida Wheeler.

Working in the control room are Don Young, engineer, Bob Marion at the music turntable, and Jack Weiss, disc recording.

Maidens, Braves Serve School

Buy a frost-bite! Buy a hot dog! These are the famous words of Y-Teen members as they sell at all football and basketball games to earn money for scholarships. Each semester an outstanding senior girl of the high school is awarded a $100 scholarship to help her in further studies. Activities are mainly service projects for the school. Y-Teens serve at all banquets given in the cafeteria, help at open house, and are always willing to help whenever called upon. Semester events include hay rides, swimming parties, senior banquet, election of officers, teas, and Y conferences. In much the same manner, th Hi-Y also serves the school. The boys sell at all the football and basketball games and sponsor a scholarship each semester. They sponsor three basketball teams in the Y.M.C.A. League. Besides this, the club sends representatives to the spring district meetings, officers to the Older Boys' Conference, and a representative and senator to participate in the state Hi-Y legislature at Lansing. The officers also spend a week at Camp Ha-o-Went-Ha, state Hi-Y training camp.

P. H. S. Holds Mock Election

Patsy Schroeder registers to vote with election worker Bob Houston as Donald Senger waits his turn.

Patsy receives her ballot from Clinton Lippard.

After picking her choices, she emerges from the secret voting booth.

Confident that she has learned much toward being a good citizen, Patsy hands her ballot to Charles Montague who puts it in the ballot box.

Tom Hatz runs the projector as part of Pontiac's Audio-Visual Education program.

A common twosome—Don Keener, hard working Quiver photographer, and his camera.
